

Clinical Instructor - Practical Nursing Program (Eligibility List)

Location: Corner Brook Campus

Job Opening ID: 9134

On Demand, Temporary

Commencing: To be determined

Deadline to Apply: Open until filled

PUBLIC POSTING

College of the North Atlantic's Practical Nursing Program at Corner Brook Campus is recruiting for qualified applicants to fill short-term vacancies to deliver clinical instruction throughout the academic year. A typical clinical experience would last 2-8 weeks in duration at 30-45 hours per week. All qualified applicants, including retired Registered Nurses with their Bachelor of Nursing Degree, are encouraged to apply.

DUTIES: The role of the Clinical Instructor will be to deliver clinical instruction to students enrolled in the Practical Nursing Program at College of the North Atlantic's Corner Brook Campus. Teaching in a clinical environment provides students with an opportunity to become proficient in previously learned hands-on skills associated with the practical nursing profession through guidance, feedback, and assessment by their Clinical Instructor. The Clinical Instructor will incorporate their own teaching style to existing lesson plans while meeting the learning objectives of the course material; work with other faculty members to ensure a coordinated and consistent teaching approach; engage students to enhance their learning; and meet with students regularly to gauge progress and proficiency in various hands-on skills. Other related duties consistent with providing and maintaining quality student-centered instruction will be required. This position may also require course delivery in a classroom and laboratory environment.

QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must possess extensive knowledge in nursing. Knowledge of classroom management including teaching and learning methods currently being utilized in post-secondary education is essential. Exceptional oral and written communication skills, problem solving skills, and organizational skills, in addition to the ability to collaborate and work effectively as a member of a faculty team is also required. Demonstrating a strong commitment to student success and the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with students, faculty, and external contacts of the College will be critical to the success of this role. These qualifications would have been acquired through the successful completion of a Bachelor of Nursing Degree with at least three (3) years of recent and relevant work experience in the nursing profession. The successful candidate must have an active practicing license with ARNNL prior to commencing employment.

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience in accordance with the College of the North Atlantic Faculty Collective Agreement.

College of the North Atlantic is an Equal Opportunity Employer

The successful candidate will be required to provide a recent Certificate of Conduct.

Please apply online complete with resume at www.cna.nl.ca/careers. Verification of credentials and the names and contact information of three professional references, including a current supervisor, will be required as part of the interview process.

Candidates must clearly demonstrate in their resume that they meet all of the required qualifications. Failure to do so may result in a candidate being screened out of the competition.
