INTERNAL POSTING

Job Information:

DUTIES: This position is responsible for preparing and cooking food on a large scale for College of the North Atlantic's Happy Valley – Goose Bay Campus cafeteria. This position will prepare quality meals following standardized procedures according to production schedule and established food safety guidelines. This position may provide some assistance with menu selection and meal planning, prepare and store food items in accordance with safe food handling practices, operate and sanitize a variety of cooking equipment, monitor and record food temperatures, assist with the serving of meals, monitor inventory, monitor food wastage, supervise food service staff and provide training to new hires and apprentices. Other duties associated with the operation of a kitchen may be assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS: The successful candidate will have knowledge of safe work and food handling practices. Excellent communication, organizational and analytical skills are required. The ability to work as a member of a team and work under pressure in a fast-paced environment is also essential for this position in order to meet the demands of a large scale operation. These qualifications would be acquired through the successful completion of high school combined with Journeyman Certification (Red Seal) and several years of experience preparing and serving food in a commercial establishment. Successful completion of courses such as NFSTP, WHMIS and First Aid are desirable. Experience in a supervisory position would be considered an asset.

SALARY: CG-E28 - $43,479.80 - $48,175.40 per annum

College of the North Atlantic is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

The successful candidate will be required to provide a recent Certificate of Conduct.

Please apply online complete with resume at www.cna.nl.ca. Names of three professional references will be required as part of the interview process.

Candidates must clearly demonstrate in their resume that they meet all of the required qualifications. Failure to do so may result in a candidate being screened out of the competition.
